Stewardship: We are in the midst of our season of Stewardship. As a church we are reflecting on how to financially support our church ministries and teams in 2024. We would love for you to join us in this work by prayerfully considering what you might bring and offer to Lynnwood's ministry in 2024. If you are able to partner with us financially we would love to have you fill out a (green) pledge card and place it in the offering plate; pledge cards are available on the shelf in the narthex (main entrance area) Thank you for helping to support our ministry!

Israel/Palestine Documentaries and Conversation: The tragic conflict going on in Israel/Palestine is one that has a long history that is often difficult for us Americans to understand. As such, Lynnwood Reformed Church, Helderberg Reformed Church, Altamont Reformed Church, and Hamilton Union Presbyterian are going to partner together to host discussion and watch two documentaries. The first session is Sunday, November 12th at 3pm. The second session is Sunday, November 19th at 3pm. We will record the sessions and have it available upon request if you are not able to make it.

Prelude

*Call to Worship Psalm 24 Ken Klapp

The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it,
the world, and those who live in it;

for he has founded it on the seas,
and established it on the rivers.

Lift up your heads, O gates!

and be lifted up, O ancient doors!

that the King of glory may come in.

Who is this King of glory?

The Lord of hosts,

he is the King of glory. .

Song of Gathering "O Worship the King"

Prayer of Confession

As God's creatures, we are made in his image

to represent him on earth,

and to live in loving communion with him.

By sovereign appointment we are

earthkeepers and caretakers:

loving our neighbor,

tending the creation,

and meeting our needs.

God uses our skills

in the unfolding and well-being of his world.

In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.

At Lynnwood Reformed Church, we affirm the great diversity of God's creation in our communities. This diversity includes persons from various economic, ethnic, and cultural backgrounds, gender expressions and sexual identities, and gifted with a variety of abilities. We also believe that God's unconditional love, as demonstrated through Jesus Christ, is intended for all. As such, all people are welcome to participate fully in the life of the church.
